Actually, I want to go over the comment document and understand what you considered legal vs technical, and go over the initial emails I sent. By no means though is this meant to provide the formal response.

Paul,

I was out of the office yesterday-sorry for my late response. If you want to talk today, let me know a time that works best for you.

I have an internal discussion tomorrow to go over each of EPA's comments and make sure we have appropriate answers. Just want to talk with you on a few of the items so I am clear on what to do prior to sending a response.
